Section Notes

Questions / Main Ideas	Notes / Answers / Definitions / Examples / Sentences
Key Terms	* Write the definition for each "Key Term". Then use the "Key" in a sentence (underline the "Key Term") or give an that shows your understanding of the term in correct context.
Key People	* Explain the importance of each "Key Person". Include the major events they were involved with and the impact they on history.
Academic Vocabulary	* For any "Academic Vocabulary" words you find in the write the definition for the "Academic Vocabulary" word and use it in a sentence (underline the "Academic Vocabulary" word) that shows your understanding of the word.
Reading Check	* In complete sentences and with sufficient details, answer "Reading Check" question in the section.
Section Assessment	* At the end of each section, answer the section assessment questions. Use complete sentences with sufficient details. Do not complete the "Writing Journal" question.

Additional Notes	* As you read you may want to add any additional notes, events, or any information you see as important. Drawing timelines, graphs, graphic organizers, etc. may help you understand the content. These notes will be helpful when studying for tests/ quizzes and may, at times, be used on tests/quizzes.
	BE SURE TO READ THE ENTIRE SECTION, NOT JUST THE ANSWERS! YOU WILL BE TESTED ON ALL
	Summary: * Following each section, use the information you have learned and the notes have taken to write a complete summary for the section. Be sure to begin summary with a topic sentence and use quality details and proper grammar summarize the main topics from the section.
